What Are Rudraksha Beads?

Rudraksha (Sanskrit: रुद्राक्ष) is a seed traditionally used as a prayer bead in Hinduism, worn for its spiritual and healing benefits. Derived from the Elaeocarpus ganitrus tree, these beads come in different "mukhi" or facets—each offering unique astrological and spiritual benefits.

Rudraksha beads are used widely for:

- Enhancing concentration and meditation
 - Offering protection from negative energies
 - Balancing chakras and calming the mind
 - Bringing good fortune and health
